(the "Company"), an advanced biomaterials company focused on sustainable solutions for the plastics and chemicals industries, has updated its previously announced plan to complete the first phase of its financing by June 30, 2014. Although the June 30 target date has passed, the Company's primary focus remains on completing financing in accordance with the Company's previously described plan to raise $50 to $60 million over the next 12 months and executing its biopolymers business.
